

Please allow more time for review of the implications of the proposed lifting of media cross-ownership.

More time, more disclosure of information and more opportunity to participate in this important public process are crucial to democracy.

One department's tardiness ought not be the other's penalty.

Sincerely,
Karen Volpe